

Bunco?! What's Bunco?

Strictly speaking, Bunco is a game of dice, played in rounds. But who wants to be strict? Bunco is a social event. It's is a party. It's is a blast!

BUNCO is about a get together, a social event, a party, a reason to leave the hubby and kids behind and get with your girlfriends and have a night to unwind, relax, laugh and chat! BUNCO is about eating and drinking until your heart's content and having a blast! BUNCO at White Manor is about all that AND making new friends!

Ladies, those of you who don't golf or play tennis at the club probably have not met as many people at the club as you could. So many members, so little time! Join old friends and new as we dine and play BUNCO. If you've never played, give us about 5 minutes to teach you. It's that simple. And it ain't about the score; it's about the fun!
